

IS YOUR HAT READY FOR WINTER?

It happens every year, folks. The winter winds come whistling into our lives and we're forced, out of necessity, to bid farewell to our beloved ball caps in exchange for itchy woolen head-snares: beanies. And for what I ask you? Merely to warm the ears? It's unequivocally a travesty of fashion justice! At least we think so, that's why we made Hat Flaps. Now you can sport your favorite lid year round comfortably and confidently. You're welcome.
